

Medford native found dead at campground

MEDFORD — Steven Wolf, 26, Milwaukee, a native of Medford, was found dead Sunday in his car at a campground north of Duluth, Minn. Death apparently was due to accidental asphyxiation.

He was born here Sept. 14, 1952. As a youth, he moved with his family to Wausau. He attended schools there, graduating from Wausau East High School. He was employed as a guard at Milwaukee County Stadium.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abe (Dorothy) Wolf of Wausau; a sister, Miss Beverly Wolf of Milwaukee; and a brother, Orrie of Wausau.

Graveside services were this afternoon at Hebrew Cemetery in Wausau. Rabbi Lawrence Mahrer officiated.
